

Dear ELD stakeholders,

Following the initial email announcing the 7th Stakeholder Conference of the Environmental Liability Directive (ELD), we hereby kindly invite you to the event, organised as a series of four webinars. The webinars will take place in the morning, from 9:30 until 13:00, including the virtual coffee break, from 16 to 20 November 2020.

The following themes are going to be discussed:

- Monday, November 16: Financial security
- Tuesday, November 17: ELD guidelines on environmental damage
- Thursday, November 19: Environmental damage cases. A new perspective from the ground.
- Friday, November 20: ELD Multi-Annual Work Programme 2021-2024

Please note that the third part of the 23rd ELD Government Expert Group meeting is organised on Wednesday 18 November 2020; the conference will hence not be continued on that day.

Please be so kind to register for the above-mentioned webinars through the Registration form, no later than October 23, 2020.

Moreover, four afternoon side events will be organised the same week, as follows:

- Monday, November 16: Environmental Liability insurance and risk management for SMEs (BIPAR)
- Tuesday, November 17: 8th Environmental Liability Directive Best Practices Seminar: Part 1 - Review of Guiding Principles and Needs (Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Management Group)
- Wednesday, November 18: Environmental Liabilities and Responsibilities: An International Discussion (Alberta Energy Regulator)
- Thursday, November 19: 8th Environmental Liability Directive Best Practices Seminar: Part 2 - Review of Specific Cases and Lessons Learned (Ad-Hoc Industry Natural Resource Management Group)

The detailed agenda of the conference and more details about the side events are annexed to this invitation letter.

Thank you for expressing your interest to participate at the 7th ELD Stakeholder Conference. We are looking forward to fruitful discussions and to hosting you virtually on this occasion.
